HISTORY

Prime Minister's Export Award or PM Award is the highest recognition for Thai products and services' quality and standard in the world market. The award was first given in 1992 under the Prime Minister, Mr. Anand Panyarchun's government. The award aims to encourage Thai brands to enter international market using their own trademarks, to improve their product design so that it is noted by international consumers and to encourage enterprises that support exporting products and services of Thailand. This year marks the 22nd year that the PM award has been held. The Prime Minister will be presenting the award as an encouragement to Thai business entrepreneurs who have been devoted to developing their products and services to match or exceed international standard and thus can sustainability compete in an international market. This will push the products and services expansion both in exporting volume and sales value and therefore is the main source of our country's income.

In year 2013, the Department of International Trade Promotion (DITP) has redefined its role and mission. The award committee saw the importance of adapting to these changes and new set goals, as a result, the name of the award was changed from Prime Minister's Export Award to Prime Minister's Business Enterprise Award, to be more up-to-date and well-covered of the new introduced award categories for this year.

Awards has been around for years in classic video games, but it became a trend in the web design world relatively recently. This cool effect is now commonly seen as part of the scrolling feature of a web page. It uses multiple backgrounds which seem to move at different speeds create a sensation of depth (creating a faux-3D effect) and an interesting browsing experience.
